The major part of the job of repairing the top of the chimney on the power plant last fall was constructing the scaffold. That took days; the actual repair work was a matter of hours.

The cylindrical grinder (right) puts a high polish on the tool turned on the lathe. Below is a new heat-treating furnace used in foundry work.

Herb Bertsch (above) was one of the N-I's most intrepid fishermen last summer on the James River. Winter's snow brought Rylie Syverson a different type of outdoor sport.

Faculty Council

The Faculty Council, appointed by the President to assist him in determining college policies and in carrying out administrative duties, consists of the heads of the Industrial Arts, Home Economics, Education and Business departments and the public relations director. Officers of the group this year are O. A. Banks, president; E. L. Kurth, vice-president; and R. T. Schonberger, secretary. The Council meets twice a month during the school year. One of its major problems during the past year was to study and determine the college's public relations policy, including publicity, recruiting and entertainment of prospective students. Other projects of the Council have been the freshman orientation program, an effort to have the 12-hour law rescinded, and curriculum development.

Classes

Student Council

All student activities are controlled and supervised by the Student Council, the "mouthpiece" of the student body and the intermediary between that body and the administration of the college. The Council is composed of one representative from each college department, elected by the students in that department. President this year was Wilber Strange, Industrial Arts. Others were Ann Slemmons, vice-president, Home Economics; Fred Retzlaff, Education; Victor Steinwand, Business; and Allan Summerfield, Junior College. When Ann Slemmons married and left school in the winter quarter, Nadine Fox replaced her on the Council. Donald Devitt joined the group for the winter term, representing the Farm Mechanics department.

Electric arc and acetylene welding, tractor mechanics and farm carpentry were offered during the winter quarter in farm mechanics. Joining the teaching staff for the term were Leon Burroughs, Class of '40, who taught mechanics and carpentry, and Ryland Syverson, Class of '51, who taught welding. Thirteen students entered the college for the 1950-51 course.

A veterans' on-the-farm training program opened at the N-I last spring with Earl H. Redlin (left) in charge. The program provides 200 hours of classroom instruction and 100 hours of individual instruction per student per year. Eligible for training are veterans of World War II who are operating farms.

En Aye Staff

The campus newspaper is published twice a month during the school year by a student staff under the supervision of R. T. Schonberger. Editor for the year is Fred Bell, with Kathryn Kirmis, Virginia Schultz and Betty Schnoor serving as associate editors. Feature writers are W. W. Strange, Donald Enger, Joanne Barclay, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whelan, Marvin Griffin and Fred Retzlaff. Reporters are Dauna Bell, Anne Larson, Richard Young, Ardys Anderson, Ann Slemmons, Neoma Bertsch, Roy Siewert and George Kelsh. The staff was augmented by other reporters elected by clubs and departments.

Home Economics Club

The Home Economics Club was organized in 1926 and named after the first teacher of home economics at the N-I, Lillian E. Tingle, who organized the department in 1899. In 1947 the local group became a chapter of the American Home Economics Association, with 12 charter members. This year the club has 10 members. Officers are Ann Slemmons, president; Nadine Fox, vice-president; Betty Rodenburg, secretary-treasurer, and Rosemary Ham, reporter. Miss Ruth L. Fritch is the faculty adviser.

A highly-decorated old Ford was the club's entry in the 1950 Homecoming parade.

The latest professional addition to the campus is the Future Teachers of America, founded last spring, with 30 members in school this year. It is an organization of all students who are preparing to teach and is designed to better prepare them for their profession. The members visited neighboring schools to present a program during American Education Week. Dr. A. D. Waterman is the organization's faculty adviser.

Alphian Society

Officers: Violet Chelgren, president; Ardys Sand, vice-president; Virginia Schultz, secretary; Betty Schnoor, treasurer; Karen Anderson, sergeant-at-arms; Marilyn Meyer, reporter.

Founded in 1906 as a literary society, Alphian now aims to help girls become better acquainted socially and intellectually and to help them become adjusted to the social environment outside the college. A Christmas banquet (right), Heart Sister Week, an assembly program and a mixer for students and faculty were highlights of the year. Miss Marvella E. Stubbe is faculty adviser of the 23-member group.

Y.W.C.A.

Carol singing was a pre-Christmas activity.

The Young Women's Christian Association exists on the N-I campus for the purpose of helping young women to grow religiously and of providing friendship for every girl enrolled in the college. The N-I chapter was founded in 1906 as a charter member of the United States organization. Officers this year are Nadine Fox, president; Ardella Bader, vice-president; Virginia Schultz, secretary, and Karen Anderson, treasurer. Mrs. Nellie J. Lees and Miss Ruth L. Fritch are faculty advisers. The membership this year is 18.

Y.M.C.A.

Officers: Ronald Brost, president; Dean Bartle, vice-president; Roy Siewert, secretary; Allan Summerfield, treasurer.

The purpose of the Young Men's Christian Association is to provide friendly surroundings for men students and to make them feel at home in student life, to lead men to know God and to grow in Christian faith and character, and to train men for leadership in applying the principles of Christ to problems of personal life and society. Founded in 1908, the group this year numbers 16. Faculty adviser is C. Wesley Christian.

Neoma Bertsch and Della Hauff prepare Fred Bell for action before the footlights.

To honor members who have done outstanding work as actors and as backstage workers and to serve as an incentive for improvement in drama, Delta Psi Omega, national honorary dramatics fraternity, was established at the N-I in 1947. At present Fred Bell is the only member in college.

N-I Players

Joan Randall and Fred Bell make an old man of Robert Gaukler.

To read, to see and to participate in as many plays as possible and to give the members of the group a knowledge of appreciation of legitimate drama are the aims of the N-I Players. Officers this year are Robert Gaukler, president; Fred Bell, vice-president; Ardys Anderson, secretary; Ann Slemmons, treasurer, and Neoma Bertsch, reporter. Mrs. Clara T. Ingvalson is the faculty adviser. The club was founded in 1946. There are 17 members this year.

Newman Club

The Newman Club Federation is an international organization of Catholic students on secular college campuses. The aim of each club is to promote the spiritual and social well being of its members. The N-I club meets twice a month to discuss religious topics and also sponsors several social gatherings. Officers are Robert Hasenmueller, president; Harlan Scherer, vice-president; Delbert Altmann, secretary-treasurer, and Joanne Barclay, reporter. Raymond E. B. Fagan is the faculty adviser. Twenty-four students joined the club this year.

Lettermen's Club

Twenty-eight winners of athletic letters joined the N-I Lettermen's Club this year. The group was organized in 1937 to build a bigger and better athletic program at the college and to illustrate how sports of all types play an important part in the physical and mental development of the college and the nation. The club awarded jackets to 14 members who have earned three letters in one sport. Officers are George Haussler, president; Charles Anderson, vice-president; Victor Steinwand, secretary, and James Mooney, treasurer. Faculty adviser is W. C. Klein (left).

To further interest in athletics, to create a spirit of good sportsmanship and to cooperate with other campus organizations in promoting and maintaining the highest standards of college life are the aims of the Women's Athletic Association. The club, founded in 1937, now has 16 members. Faculty adviser is Mrs. S. D. Slemmons.

Officers: Edna Irion, president; Cleo Blount, vice-president; Karen Anderson, secretary; Verna Kramer, treasurer; Laura Smestad and Billee Newman, reporters.

Cheerleaders

In 1936 a pep club, called Pepeni, was organized at the N-I to create and maintain a permanent school spirit through the medium of a student pep squad. This year the entire student body became an informal pep organization under the direction of Francis Gibson (left), elected head cheerleader by the student body last spring. At try-outs before Homecoming last fall the student body chose his five assistants.

Highlights of 1950

The top achievement of the track season was Palmer Retzlaff's new record of 45 feet 3 1/4 inches in the shot put at the conference meet. The following week Palmer became the first Dustie to win a first-place medal at the Aberdeen Relays, putting the shot 46 feet. On September 22 the Dusties played their first home night football game, defeating the Jamestown Jimmies.

At the conference meeting in Minneapolis November 17, Ervin Dockter made the coaches' all-conference first eleven at guard.

Football Squad

Football Coach Wally Klein and Assistant Coach Connie Juelke tossed out the pads to the Dusties a week early to start the 1950 football season. The heaviest line in the history of the N-I formed as 30 huskies reported for work, with Walt Zahn tipping the beam at 265, Jim Toay at 225, Palmer Retzlaff and Herb Bertsch at 200. Many foes couldn't believe that so much could move so fast. The spirit of the Dusties was high as they met the Jamestown Jimmies in the opening game of the season. After an even battle all the way, Erv Dockter pounced on a Jimmie fumble and the Dusties started rolling to a 12 to 6 victory, beating the Jimmies for the fourth straight year. Eddie Leuthner and Palmer Retzlaff scored the touchdowns.

The Dusties scored their second victory at Bot-tineau, running up a 27 to 12 count against the Foresters. Buzz Whelan started things by running for 65 yards to put the ball in scoring position for Eddie Leuthner. Palmer Retzlaff booted the next kickoff across the goal and fell on it for another touchdown. Hartley Brown's educated toe produced the extra point. Bob Mc-Eachern and Fred Retzlaff got the other two N-I touchdowns, with Brown adding another extra point. The Dickinson Savages blasted N-I hopes for a conference title in a game the Dus-ties will long remember. In the second quarter the Dusties sent a short kick against the wind out of bounds on their own 31-yard line and Dickinson made good their only opportunity of the game. The Dusties had four chances inside the 10-yard line but couldn't score. The best are sometimes beaten, and so it was that cold October day, 6 to 0.

Roundup fans were treated to a 19 to 6 Dustie victory over the Bismarck Mystics in one of the wierdest games the N-I has engaged in for many years. In spite of the Dusties' superiority on offense and defense, the game was a thriller all the way. Intercepted passes, completed passes and fumbles, blocked kicks and 235 yards in penalties nullified many scoring chances. Jerry Muckenhirn and Palmer Retzlaff grabbed touchdown passes from Don Murgatroyd and Les Eklund scored the third. Brown added an extra point. Coach Klein can take a well-earned bow after the game his team played at Wahpeton to close the season. For the first time in many years the Dusties gave the Wildcats a trimming on Wahpeton's Homecoming, 19 to 0. Jack Benson scored the first touchdown and Murgatroyd passed to Palmer for the second. Then Murgatroyd intercepted a Wildcat pass and stepped 50 yards for the third counter, passing to Palmer for the extra point.

Basketball 1950 - 51

The N-I basketball team went into the final two games of the season in position to tie for the conference championship, but a heart-breaking overtime loss at Mayville and a decisive beating at Valley City pushed them into a tie for third place in the final standings. Minot came to town Feb. 16 riding a 10-1 record against the Dusties' 8-3. Coach Slemmons' boys trimmed the Beavers, then took another game at Wahpeton the next night while Jamestown was hanging a third defeat on Minot. But four games in five days, the last three away from home, was too great a load for the N-I players. They grabbed a two-point lead at Mayville with three seconds to go, then saw the Comets tie it up as the buzzer sounded and take a four-point victory in the extra session. At Valley City the next night the dog-tired Dusties ran into Bob Price on his best night in four years and absorbed a final shellacking.

Thirteen victories in 22 games gave the Dusties a respectable record. Captain Jerry Muckenhirn led the scoring with 318 points in all games and 224 in conference play, an average of 16 points per loop game. Eddie Muckenhirn scored 301 for the season and 192 in loop competition, while Connie Juelke totalled 273 for the season and 198 in the conference. The Dusties averaged 61.5 points in all games and 62.7 in the conference while holding their opponents to 59.6. They lost but two games on their own floor, a two-point decision to Southern Teachers in the first game and a seven-pointer later in the season to Huron, the South Dakota champion. Letters were awarded to the 10 squad members pictured on the following pages.

Track 1950

PALMER RETZLAFF

Four Dusties made a fine showing in the Dakota Pentangular meet at Jamestown May 13, taking third place behind Northern and Jamestown, with Palmer winning high point honors with 13 1/2. His lusty throw of 144 feet 3 inches in the discus was three feet short of the record. He also placed second in the shot and javelin and tied for second in the high jump. Zahn and Fred Retzlaff won third and fourth in the shot and Murgatroyd took second in the pole vault and fourth in the high jump.

FRED RETZLAFF

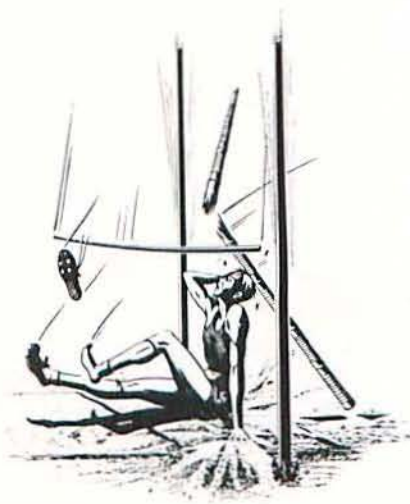

The conference meet at Jamestown May 26 found the Dusties in third place behind Jamestown and Dickinson, with Palmer accounting for  $10\frac{1}{4}$  of the Dusties'  $18\frac{1}{2}$  points. Palmer set a new record of 45 feet  $3\frac{1}{4}$  inches in winning the shot, won the discus at 142 feet 7 inches and tied with Murgatroyd and two others for fourth in the high jump. Zahn took second in the shot and third in the discus, and Jim Toay added a fourth in the discus. Murgatroyd tied with two others for second in the pole vault.

DON MURGATROYD

JIM TOAY

The season ended with the postponed half of the Aberdeen Relays May 28, Palmer winning the shot put at 46 feet to become the first Dustie to win an event in that meet. Lettermen for the season, named by Coach Senn Slemmons for their work in the five meets, were Palmer and Fred Retzlaff, Walt Zahn, Don Murgatroyd and Jim Toay.

BETTY JANE SCHNOOR
Queen of the 1950 Roundup

A NIGHT IN THE LIFE OF A QUEEN

Range Boss Ryland Syverson introduces Queen Betty Schnoor to the Roundup gang at the Friday night Pepfest.

1949 Queen Diane Juelke presents the new Queen with the symbol of office.

Master of Ceremonies Martin Steinwand seats the Queen and her attendants, June Hauser, Harriet Horsager and Kathy Kirmis. Someone set off the bonfire prematurely (right), but there was enough left for a bunch of hands to salute the Queen.

Prizes for the best-dressed cowboy went to Harold Mensing, Francis Gibson and Charles Anderson. Winners of best-dressed cowgirl prizes were Laura Smestad, Joan Randall and Jeanette McShane.

Range Boss Syverson added the title of Whisker King to his night's awards, while Clyde Moore won a prize for the best trimmed beard. Earl Kinzler and Duane Heitzmann shared the title of Beardless Baron.

Saturday's parade was led by the Ellendale high school band with color guard, followed by the the majorettes, headed by Esther Schaller, in the lead.

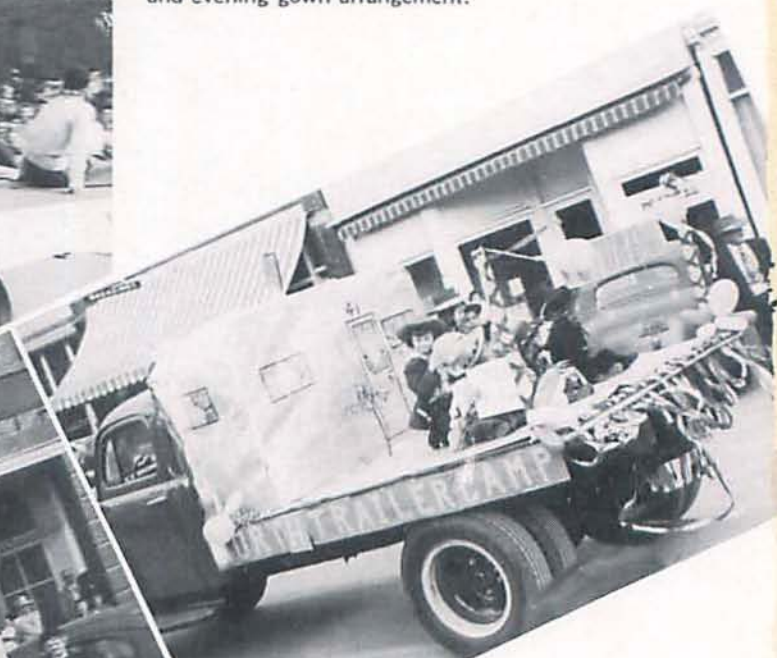

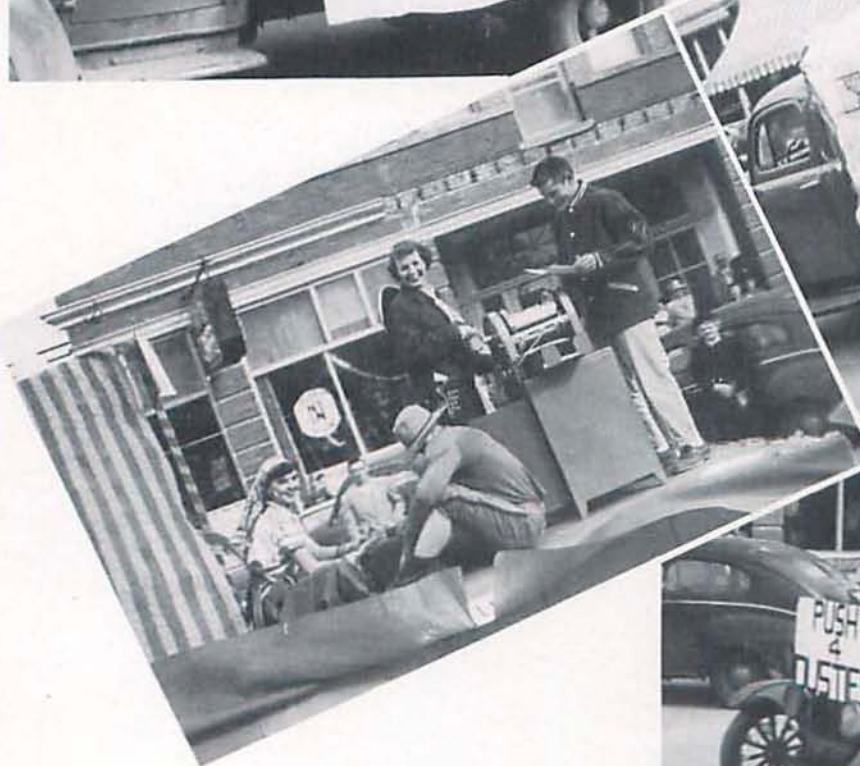

Willie Strange (above) added comic relief. First prize in the float contest went to the entry of the N-I Chorus (right).

The Alphan Society won second prize for floats with their flower and evening gown arrangement.

The Industrial Arts Club won third prize for floats with their old-fashioned horse and buggy.

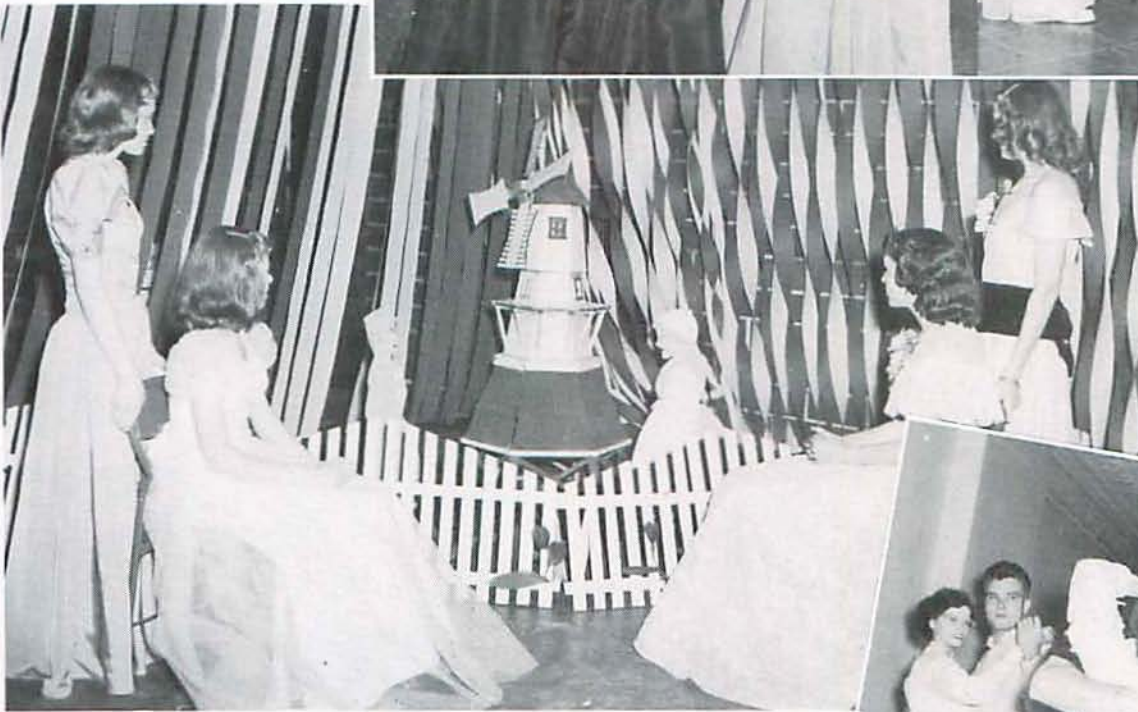

Queen Betty is escorted to her coronation between halves of the football game.

Ray Palmer's orchestra provided music for the Homecoming Ball on Saturday night.

The most lavishly decorated event of the year was the Spring Formal May 6, honoring high school guests. One of a series of informal dances (right) was given in the fall by the girls of Dacotah Hall.

En Aye Leadership Awards for 1950 went to six senior students of the N-I. Awards were based on initiative and responsibility, personality, scholarship, character, service to the college and potential success in later life. Awards are usually limited to four, but the selection committee was unable to eliminate any of the six finalists last spring.

Who's Who

RYLAND SYVERSON
Dwight

Five seniors were selected last fall for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. The Faculty Council nominated eleven candidates for the honor, with the Student Council making the final selection of five. Selections were based on scholarship and student activities. The five were accepted by national headquarters of Who's Who and listed in the yearbook published by the organization.

In the summer of 1947, after a survey had shown that no hospital facilities existed for 3,000 families in an area centering on Ellendale, the Ellendale Advertising Association voted to sponsor a drive for a 20-bed hospital in the city and appointed a committee to supervise a fund-raising campaign. That committee was headed by J. H. Meyer and included D. W. Crabtree, Roy Crowley, F. W. Blumer, J. C. McMillan and Rev. E. M. F. Jording. An early addition to the committee was C. G. Kee, who later became the first president of the Board of Directors. Slowly but steadily the campaign progressed, until in January 1950 enough money had been pledged so that construction could begin. The committee's work ended, the Advertising Association called a county-wide mass meeting to form the Dickey County Memorial Hospital Association and to elect a Board of Directors. Besides Mr. Kee, current members of the board are Iver L. Tveit, Mrs. F. W. Kalbus, F. W. Blumer, Harold Billey, J. H. Boekelheide, J. D. Crabtree, Carl Retzlaff, Ralph Redlin and J. H. Meyer. Ground for the structure was broken last spring and work went rapidly ahead, aided by a mild fall, until the building was entirely enclosed before winter's first snowfall. Community projects throughout the county have intensified interest in the hospital and solidified public cooperation and enthusiasm. Adding immeasurably to the success of the drive is a women's auxiliary, formed September 16, 1950, with Mrs. E. M. Leiby as president, Mrs. D. W. Crabtree and Mrs. L. E. Merrick as vice-presidents and Mrs. D. R. Crabtree as treasurer. The Ellendale Advertising Association is justly proud of the way the citizens of the county have rallied to the support of the Dickey County Memorial Hospital.

Ellendale's two physicians, Dr. A. G. Maercklein (left) and Dr. Roy Lynde (right), had the honor of breaking ground for the hospital, which will cost an estimated $100,000 and is being financed entirely by the people of the city and county, without federal or state aid of any kind.

A surprise party was given Dr. Lynde on his seventy-fifth birthday by the people of the community. "Doc" is escorted into the gymnasium by Esther Schaller and the high school majorettes (above). F. E. "Pete" Randall (left) reads a tribute to "Doc." Dr. Kenneth Leiby (below) presents an oil painting of Dr. Lynde, to be installed in the new hospital.

C. G. Kee prepares to lay the cornerstone at dedication ceremonies November 7 (above). Mayor Roy Bergman (right) and Dr. N. E. Steele (below), president of Northern State Teachers College at Aberdeen, address the throng.

F. E. Randall and C. G. Kee converse with Dr. Steele at luncheon preceding the dedication (above). S. D. Slemmons and F. W. Blumer visit with Mrs. Steele (left). Below is a group of hospital directors and campaign workers. Seated are J. H. Boekelheide, Ralph Redlin, Mrs. F. W. Kalbus, Rev. John H. Kern and Mayor Bergman. Standing are Iver Tveit, Carl Retzlaff, J. D. Crabtree and Mrs. E. M. Leiby.
